

Grand Knight's Report

Growing up, my father was a man of few words. He mostly led by example and spoke thru his actions. He never shied away from helping his church or neighbor and would often take us kids along to help out. He would always say, "If its worth doing, its worth doing well"; words to live by.

My father is my hero; I try to emulate him because he is a great man. He is the reason I became a Knight. By his example and well-chosen words, he taught me kindness and compassion, and gave me the gift of a strong work ethic. These same three things can sum up our council, which is why I am so proud to be an involved Knight of Columbus in council 13576.

You are the reason I am so proud. You are always there to lend a helping hand. Good job on the school painting project, I saw Knights there that I had not seen in a while. Good job on the setup for the diocesan luncheon, I put out the email and did not worry, I knew you would be there. Good job on the setup and cleanup of the Awards Banquet, another great success.

Every time I see any of you at these functions I see your dedication and I see Christ working thru you.
